

Copper Basin Bible Camp provides a summer camp for teens and children in which they can grow in Christ through study of God's word and interaction with other campers in the setting of God's natural creation.

Copper Basin Bible Camp is nestled in the beauty of God's creation amid the cool pines of the Prescott National Forest southwest of Prescott, Arizona. Each week of camp may be supervised by a different Director. Counselors are college-age Christians.

Cub Camp is a mini-camp designed for children who have completed kindergarten through 2nd grade (entering 1st through 3rd). The sessions run for two days and two nights. This camp introduces the camp experience to younger campers without the anxiety of being away from home too long. One parent (or grandparent/guardian) of legal age must accompany their child.

Copper Basin Bible Camp

2010 Camper Application

Please read and complete this entire application (2 pages)

Please place a "1" in the space for your first choice and a "2" in the space for your second choice. Campers wishing to attend more than one session place a "1" in both spaces and you will be registered in the first session and put on a waiting list for the second session. We will give campers that could not attend the first session priority to attend the second session, and then register those on the waiting list based on first come first served.

Note: Camp sessions are determined by grade entering in the fall.
